

WHAT'S IT ABOUT

Greetings, my friend!

My name is Laurel, the soul behind Up Skill – a store dedicated to enhance your personal development.

Just like any person, I have hiccups every now and then, whether it is related to my work or my daily life. It's only natural, isn't it?

A lot of people know their ways around these difficult situations, and are able to break through that wall. But what about those who keep on trying — to no avail.

In the back of your head, you know that you want to lift yourself up, take that next step, do better, and keep moving forward.

But sometimes you either lack the motivation or you don't exactly know how to tackle it.

Don't you worry!

This place is a resource that came to life as a result of my own experiences. It's a collection of all the products that I find useful, things that give me a boost to keep moving ahead.

TAILORED FOR YOU

From fidget toys to minimalist desk items that can help you focus better, there is a wide variety of products and many of them that are custom-made. I guarantee that you will find something tailored to your needs.
